Ana cannot contain her excitement—her abuela is coming to stay with her and Mami for always! She won't need señora Mimí to babysit at all anymore—but maybe Ana isn't ready to say goodbye to señora Mimí just yet? Masterful storyteller Meg Medina shares a reassuring tale that celebrates caregivers and community and their special role in children's lives, paired with warm, expressive illustrations by Brittany Cicchese.

Drawing Activity

Many people in Ana's life care for her: her mami, señora Mimi, and her abuela. Who is someone who cares for you, and what activities do you like to do together? Draw a picture of yourself with them.

This is a picture of _____ and me.
We like to _____ together.

Walking to School

Señora Mimí, Nelson, Pancho, and Ana need to run to make it to school before the bell! Can you help them find their way through this maze to get there on time?
